

Scholarships

- Are you keen to improve community safety?
- Have you found an area in your work that needs further development?
- Is there a better way to do the task?
- Want to improve your skills?
- Have you a passion to teach others about what you have learnt?
- Willing to learn from others?
- Are you keen to analysis processes and try new ideas?

For more information visit the Emergency Services Foundation Website

www.esf.com.au

Or talk to an Alumni member in your agency to find out more:

Scholarship Rules

- Study in Australia or overseas
- Grants up to $9,500
- Avoid duplication of previous research by scholarship winners
- Scholarships are opening in Sept 2009 - application forms are on the ESF website www.esf.com.au
- Applications must be submitted to your agency for internal prioritization
- Candidates are required to present to a multi agency panel before being approved for a scholarship
- Successful candidates to submit a comprehensive report to ESF and Heads of Agencies at completion of the scholarship
- Successful candidates to make presentations on their study at courses and conferences and write articles for journals and newsletters
- Successful candidates must take leave to accommodate the scholarship